Foreword

As you watch the clock in class, the minutes seem to drag; the hours pass even slower. Finally, at a snail's pace, the week draws to an end. The week ends, however, only to be followed by more and more endless weeks. You wonder if the tedious cycle will ever cease . . .

But rather suddenly you realize that you are a senior. Your year swims with exams, applications, interviews, banquets, and prom. In fact, you are in such a whirl that you hardly notice that graduation day is rapidly approaching. Even as you march down the isle on graduation, you fail to realize that what seemed like an endless cycle has finally ceased.

Then when the graduation music has drifted away, the tests are a thing of the past, and the applications and interviews have been long completed, the idea finally reaches you—high school days are gone. And, to think at one time you felt that time was actually dragging! Now it seems like only yesterday that you were a freshman.

Thus you conclude, rather sadly, that high school days really do fly by very rapidly. You realize, too, that after graduation you can relive your years of school only through memories. For that reason, then, this yearbook is designed to help you REMEMBER.

Remember

. . . Reading a book a week for Mr. Grant

. . . Attempting to solve impossible math problems

. . . Dissecting a frog in biology class

. . . Feeling the after effects of stiff muscles in gym

. . . Losing patience over unbalanced journals

. . . Getting to appreciate teachers as real human beings

Faculty and Classes

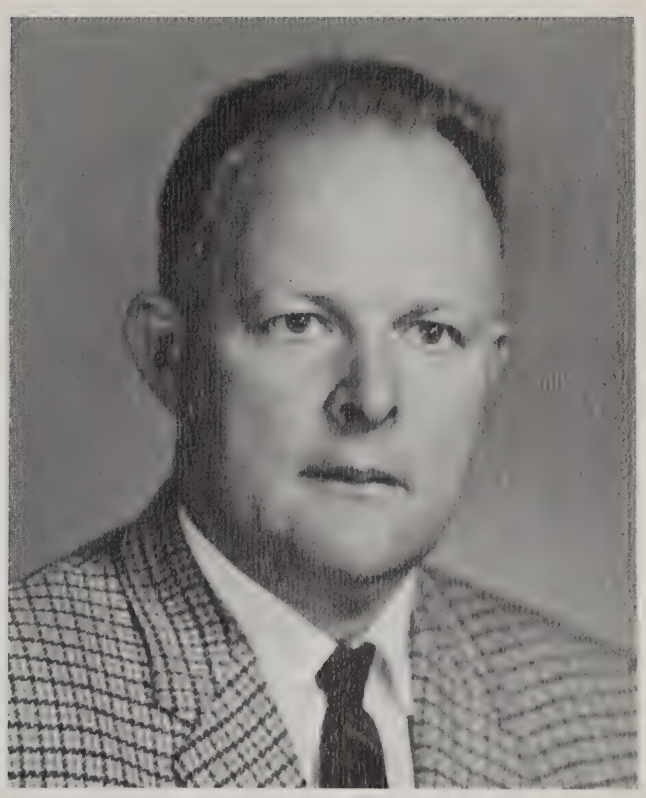

Education is the magic casement opening for you on new vistas, a panoramic view of your world. Your use of this window determines your insights, your sympathies, your knowledge of mankind, and your degree of involvement in it.

When life stirs, education begins—to end only when life ends. Therefore, make the best use of your time, remembering your commitment to life, your basic truth to yourself, the promises you have to keep, and the miles to go before you sleep!

Philip A. Sweeney
Principal

Fantasy

The seniors take pleasure in dancing to the festive music of Nick Creanza's orchestra on December 18th.

The gayly decorated gym made an attractive setting for the dance.

Enjoying the refreshments after dancing most of the evening are Grace Todd, George Papadopulos, Ann Theocles, Paul Latch, Chris Callini, and Gary Miles.

A girl could wish for this service every day.

As Maria Sousa glances upward at the mistletoe, her date steps back.

First-period bookkeeping students in Room 113 are in charge of all G. O. work.

In every homeroom, there are a G. O. agent and alternate who act as liaisons for G. O.

Numerous benefits including free school newspaper and reduced yearbook price.

Another benefit is the annual assembly provided by G. O. money.

Not only do seniors get usual benefits; they also receive free prom and banquet tickets.

Capers tickets are sold at reduced rates to G. O. members.

Essential to the financing of school activities is G. O.

Students are helped in their G. O. payment by the installment plan.

A typical 8:35 a.m. scene in Room 113 has Marilyn Powell, Rosemarie Sansalone, and Rose Giovannini collecting G. O. dues.

Commerce

Room 216B is the headquarters for our school newspaper.

Editor-in-Chief of the paper is Angela Pinzone.

Publishing the newspaper is the job of the Lann Publishing Co.

Original, creative methods are used to capture the interest of the readers.

Reporters are chosen on the basis of their writing ability and their initiative.

Thoroughness and accuracy are chief standards of the reporting staff.

Schools in this area send their newspapers to Commerce for an exchange of ideas.

Caduceus

Remembrance is the theme for Caduceus 1966, our school yearbook.

Each school day, seventh period in the library is devoted to its organization.

Co-operation of Mr. Jones and many other faculty members helps its production.

Often suggestions which are offered by students and faculty are used effectively.

Long hours are spent proofreading the material sent to our printers.

Layouts, the designing of every individual page, is the most important phase of staff work.

Every deadline, seemingly impossible, is met with determination.

Constant supervision of the staff is the job of Mr. R. H. Ellison.

T. O'Toole and Sons are the co-operating publishers of Caduceus.

Planning the pages for the yearbook is a very important part of the work of the Caduceus editorial staff. Discussing plans for their sports section are Donald Senecal and James Riendeau.

National Honor Society

Seniors and juniors who meet the necessary academic requirements are eligible.

Character, leadership, and service must accompany National Honor Society members.

Honor pins were awarded to two-year members at induction ceremonies.

Officers are elected separately for the junior and senior members.

Largely through Miss Helen E. Rankin, the Commerce Chapter was founded in 1962.

A donation of $1,000 and another of $100 were anonymously given to N.H.S. scholarship fund.

Raising money for scholarships is done by paperback book and plastic yearbook cover sales.

Scholarships help college students to buy textbooks and other necessities.

Student Council

Good student government is a vital factor in any well organized high school.

Officers for the Student Council are elected from the six representatives of each class.

Very often members make signs for upcoming athletic events.

Elections of all class officers are conducted by the council.

Representatives for Inter-School Youth Council and Western Mass. Assn. are chosen.

Numerous activities include welcoming the freshmen and distributing freshman handbooks.

Senior Standouts are selected each month by the Student Council.

Robert Harding, Sally Berry, and Barbara Shonak serve faculty guests Mrs. Mahan and Mr. Bennett at the tea given by the Council.

Maureen Murphy pays an early morning visit to the Trading Post to obtain items she will need for her school day. Kathy Staples is waiting on her.

School supplies are among the many items for sale at our school store.

Teachers as well as students take advantage of what is available there.

Operation of the school store is under the direction of Miss Conway.

Reasonable prices are made possible by low overhead costs.

Each Monday and Thursday the store is open between 8:00 and 8:25.

Trading Post

Willing Commerce students devote one afternoon a week each fall to help in Christmas Seals clerical work.

Organizing the work of the volunteers is the duty of each captain.

Regular attendance is important so that the T.B. Association can make mailings on time.

Kind assistance by Mrs. Bertha Slater makes the girls' work more pleasant.

Tuberculosis Association Typists

Captains Barbara Temkin, Kathleen Staples, Kathleen Downey, Jane Colby, and Susan Aldrich are inspecting the work of the typists to insure neatness and accuracy. Each captain has complete supervision on one afternoon per week.

News around the school is collected for the Spotlight on Youth section of the Sunday Republican.

Each high school in our vicinity contributes articles to this section.

Willing students Marlene Gentile, Sheila McMahon, and Mary Rigazio write our weekly news.

Supervising the reporters is Mr. Melvin Grant, who offers them excellent advice.

Getting a few pointers from their editorial adviser, Mr. Grant, are Marlene Gentile, Mary Rigazio, and Sheila McMahon.

Spotlight on Youth

Math Club

All students interested in increasing their background in math are eligible to join.

Directors are President Barbara Shonak, Vice-President Bessie Kapetanis, and Secretary Linda Skibski.

During the year speeches are given by students and representatives of business and colleges.

Commerce Capers

Joe the Bartender (Roger Camerota) and Crazy Guggenheim (John Berti) engage in a comical conversation.

Joyce Peck sweetly reminisces with the ballad "Yesterday."

Joe Pioggia's concluding speech is interrupted by Jane Berrouard singing "New Country Corn Flakes." John Troy the lumberjack soon puts an end to her song, however, by accidentally (?) striking her with a log.

Hodge-Podge A-Go-Go

Every year Commerce students anxiously await the annual variety show, Commerce Capers.

Net profit from the 1965 show exceeded all previous years.

The theme of this year's Commerce Capers was "Hodge-Podge A-Go-Go."

Equally important to its success were the makeup committee, publicity committee, and the ushers.

Ready and willing also were the members of the stage crew in making possible the show.

Talent and preparation are the two main factors in choosing the participants.

As an introduction, students were treated to a preview four days before opening.

In both performances the Shindig girls were received enthusiastically.

Nightly, December tenth and eleventh, performances began at 8:00.

Alneta Holmes, Alfreda Coleman, and Constance Keaton harmonize in strains of "Look in My Eyes."

Red Cross Council

President Diane Pina is here directing the council members in putting supplies in the Vietnam Friendship Kits to be sent to unfortunate children in Vietnam.

Cookies were supplied for a patients' dance at Northampton Veteran's Hospital.

Happy children enjoyed the party given by the council at the South End Community Center.

An enrollment drive was conducted the week of October 25, and $138.95 was collected.

Refugee children of South Vietnam received friendship kits made by the Red Cross Council.

In March the group decorated the Northampton State Hospital.

The January meeting program included a speech by Louisa Velasquez, a native of Spain.

Yearly the council is assisted by homeroom reps in the enrollment drive.

Future Nurses Club

Helping unfortunate people is one of the aims of the Future Nurses' Club.

Each dedicated member contributes much of her time to acquainting herself with nursing.

Linda LaPine, the president, and Mrs. Murphy are responsible for smooth club operation.

Providence, Hartford, and Springfield are three hospitals visited by the club.

Each of these hospitals is a possible choice for nurses training after graduation.

Recreation is provided for the patients of different hospitals by the Future Nurses Club.

Springfield Municipal Hospital was the scene of the club's Christmas caroling program.

Joan Gagliardo and Helen Menzel are selling brownies at the annual sale sponsored by the Future Nurses' Club. The proceeds go into the Future Nurses Club Scholarship Fund.

Lunchroom Aides

Monday through Friday, the lunchroom aides work each noon.

Each cashier must prove cash to balance with the register.

Accuracy is the prime requirement of a good cashier.

Last 15 minutes of lunch are a busy time for bus boys.

Supervisor Mrs. Odato encourages aides to strive for neatness.

With the teacher's requests in hand, the Audio Visual Aide members, Robert Cogswell, Blair Harrington and Nicholas Creanza, prepare the needed materials for the day.

Audio-Visual Aides

Audio-visual aides play an important part in the production of Capers and assemblies.

In addition, they help in the classroom by showing films.

Duties are carried out ambitiously by the boys, who realize the honor of being chosen as Aides.

Efficiency and Mr. Jones' thorough training are required to prepare these activities on time.

Stage crew members work closely with Audio-Visual to make our assemblies more enjoyable.

Office Aides

All girls qualifying for the positions are recommended by their teachers.

She must not only be efficient, but the student must also be courteous.

Some duties in the main office are answering telephones, sorting mail and delivering passes.

In addition there are other girls who perform clerical duties for the counselors.

Such working experience helps the girl adjust to any office routine later.

Truly it is an honor to hold such a trustworthy position.

Marilyn Powell, an efficient office aide, is answering a teacher's inquiry about a student's program schedule.

Library Assistants

Retrieving overdue books is a vital service of the Library Assistants.

Every day Library Assistants take attendance of pupils coming to the library.

Another responsibility is charging out our books to students and teachers.

Duties range from checking library passes to covering new books with plastic covers.

Right: Jean Pelletier is carrying out one of the many duties of a library assistant, covering books. Above: Mary Young checks to see if Jimmie Freeman has his overdue library book.

One of the highlights of the year was the Christmas program offered by the various music groups. The chorus sang "Break Forth O Beauteous Heavenly Light", "O Holy Night" and a special arrangement of "Jingle Bells." The choir sang a French carole "Noël, Noël along with "Lullaby of the Christ Child" and "Take Me for a Sleigh Ride."

Musical Organizations

Members for the choir are selected by audition and outstanding performance.

Utilizing the talent of both boys and girls, Mr. Nickerson has formed a chorus.

Singing at assemblies, hospitals, banquets and graduation, the choir serves often.

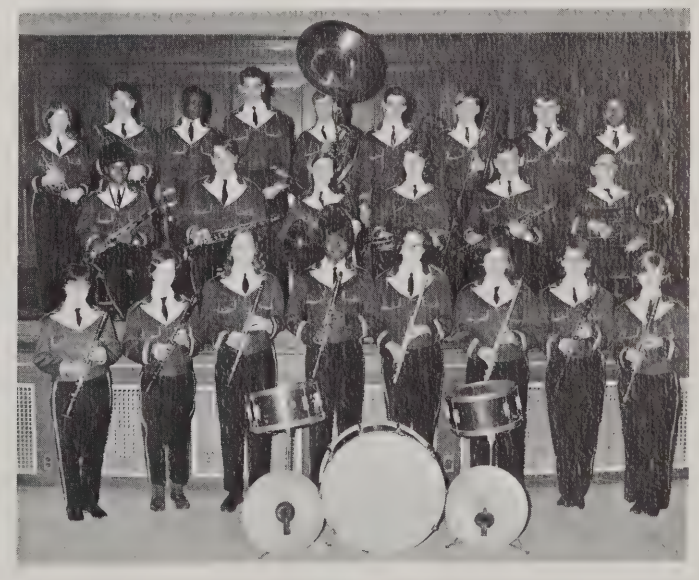

In the annual Christmas assembly, each musical group is featured.

Commerce is proud of its well trained band which entertains here and at other schools.

Everyone must comply with the school rules enforced by the Student Patrol.

No unauthorized wandering in the halls is permitted during classes.

From time to time new members are added to the Patrol Squad.

Organizer of the patrol was Mr. Stillman F. McKeeley, an accounting teacher at Commerce in 1931.

Responsible, trustworthy students are chosen by teachers for Student Patrol.

Checking passes is the prime task of members while on their posts.

Eagerly and hopefully the annual patrol picnic is awaited.

Kathy Rollend enjoys being a patrol member when she has the opportunity of greeting important people such as Wally Beach, who came to speak to students interested in a career in the theater.

Future Teachers

The purpose is to acquaint students with various aspects of the teaching profession.

Every other Wednesday members meet in room 132 during homeroom period.

Acting officers are President Bessie Kapatanis, Doreen Sisk, Janet Kitchen, and Helen Menzel.

Club officers are assisted by senior advisers, Historian and Parliamentarian.

Helping the club to obtain its charter is its adviser, Mrs. Cabana.

The G.O. Assembly, produced by the Student Council for the freshman and junior classes, illustrated the benefits of G. O.

Assemblies

The American Education Week Assembly, conducted by Kathleen Downey, Sally Berry, and Ernest Griffin, was a solemn, impressive program.

Senator Edward M. Kennedy listened to Mr. Sweeney's introduction which preceded his excellent lecture on Viet Nam.

The Westover 8th Air Force Band entertained the entire school by playing a variety of musical selections.

Guidance assemblies are held by the counselors the first week of every month.

Athletic awards assemblies are held at the conclusion of each sports season.

The Thanksgiving Day assembly featured Rev. Msgr. Leary, director of Cathedral High School.

Honor Roll assemblies are held at the end of each marking term.

Edward Kennedy spoke to Commerce students on the Vietnam situation, December 15, 1965.

Rallies for many of the football and basketball games are most popular.

Informing freshmen about the Girls' Athletic Association was a September event.

Noteworthy were Mr. Jones' slides of his summer tour of America and Canada.

G.O. membership was encouraged by the annual G.O. Assembly.

Special assemblies also commemorated Christmas and American Education Week.

Typical school spirit was demonstrated at all of our pep rallies.

Varsity Baseball has an impressive season

Donny Holmes hurls a curve for a strike against Wahconah.

Although the Raiders had unsteady pitching, they came out of last year's season with a 5-10 record and managed to place third in the City League. About half of the players on the team were either juniors or freshmen, and with many new prospects coming up from the J.V. team, Coach Cook sees only improvement for next season.

Jerry Parham practices the high-jump in which he won first place in the Interschool Meet.

Under the close supervision of Coach Troy and his staff, the Red Raider track team showed a lot of spirit and hustle. Though widely out-manned by every team they competed against, the boys showed fine competitive spirit and never gave up. Since most of the team consisted of freshmen, Mr. Troy is looking forward to next year with optimism.

Dribbling around an opponent and stopping for a quick jump shot was Tommie Yvon's specialty.

The Raiders basketball team had a losing record this season, finishing at 3 wins and 15 losses. This was due mostly to lack of material and experience. It marked Coach John Troy's final year as coach, since he has been promoted to assistant principal. Tom Yvon, an All-City performer, was field general and leading scorer.

Forrest Bateman shoots over an opposing player for a possible two points. Dan Hanson is set for a possible rebound.

Acknowledgements

The Editorial Staff and its adviser, Mr. Ellison, wish to thank

Miss McCleary and her photo production staff, Rosemarie Clefe, Judith Louer, Kathleen Mahan, and Jane Tokarz, for their efficient service in making all photo arrangements. Without their help, we could not have made several tight deadlines.

Mr. Jones, our faculty photographer, for his reliable, on-the-spot service. In ten years, Mr. Ellison and the editors have seldom made a demand that Mr. Jones could not meet.

Miss Grace Connell and Miss Henderson for supervising senior photo appointments.

Mr. Alminas and Mr. Mazurowski, and their business staff, for assuming the heavy responsibilities of financing and distributing Caduceus '66.

Mr. Sweeney for his generous cooperation in making possible our distinctive (and expensive) cover.

The Commerce Faculty for their patience with our necessary classroom interruptions and their help with photo identifications.

Mrs. Ellis for compiling urgently needed senior data, often upon too short notice.

Josten's for supplying the design sketches for our cover.

Bosworth's Studio for providing our homeroom group photos and action shots of several important evening events.

Mr. Jack Brown of T. O'Toole and Sons for his technical assistance in the printing of Caduceus '66. Mr. Brown has frequently enabled us to employ special printing effects with satisfying results.

Before you accept that first job . . .

Look over your employer as carefully as he does you

What's the Company like anyway? Would I be proud to work there? Reputation for square dealing with employees? Pleasant surroundings?

Will I be working with others my own age? Are they friendly? Do they socialize after hours?

Will the boss be reasonable? Appreciate good, hard work, but won't explode if I make a mistake?

Will I make a decent week's pay? Have a chance for raises, advancement, more responsibility? How about fringe benefits?

Is the work challenging? I had what it takes to get through high school. Will they give me a chance to use my brains?

Note: Many young men and women in this area can answer "Yes" to these questions. They work for New England Telephone Company . . . New England's largest employer.

Why not talk with our employment interviewer soon . . . before you graduate? Ask your Guidance Counselor to tell you when and where to apply.
